

What is the food like there?

Cha-am is renowned for its excellent and reasonably priced seafood.

Take a trip down to the local pier in Cha-am and watch as the boats come back in after a night out fishing.

There are many excellent restaurants at the pier and the fish is literally taken from the boat to the kitchen to your plate!

Take a look at our restaurant listings.

Thai food is really healthy and full of natural flavours and spices. It is not like the Thai food served in European restaurants.

Local fresh ingredients are used and you will never feel bloated after a real Thai meal.

When you eat Thai food in Cha-am you are eating REAL Thai food. It is NOT the same as the Thai food that you get back in Europe. At first, you may have to ask them to make it less spicy (mai ouw phet) but you will definitely taste some amazing dishes - your taste buds wont know what has hit them!
