

Pink Flamingo wins League

Pink Flamingo became the first bar to win any pool competition in the area. Competing with the local bars in Hua Hin, the guys from the Pink Flamingo won comfortably in the end! For a while it was looking like a close race but in the last few weeks they held their nerves better than their rivals and their quality won through! After a quick promotion to the 3rd division after their inaugural year in the League the Pink Flamingo team have done it again by topping the 3rd division. Can they make it all the way to the top league?
